South Alabama. With every eligible purchase, Amazon Smile donates 0.5% to Big Brothers Big Sisters of South Alabama. The company partners with BBBS to help youth. Partnering with the Mobile Bay Parrotheads is proof that you can do good and have fun! The Parrotheads are a group of fans of the band Jimmy Buffett. The group supports BBBS and other local organizations. The group sponsors a number of events throughout the year.

On Friday, June 17 take part in the Dora Franklin Finley African-American Heritage Trail and cocktail hour at the History Museum of Mobile (111 South Royal Street). Starting on Thursday, June 16, from 5:30-7:30pm, there will be five minute history talks about African-American history. The talks will be given by volunteers from the community. The talks are free and open to the public.

Mobile County Schools first day back is August 4th. Fonde Elementary in Mobile will be hosting a Back to School Bash on August 4th. The event will be held from 4-6pm. Parents and students can register for the event by emailing their name and grade level to the school. The event will include games, crafts, and snacks for students. Parents can register by emailing their name and contact information to the school.

Corporate Bigs. At this time Alayzhia is working with a Corporate Big. A Corporate Big is a volunteer who works with a child who is not in school. The Corporate Big is paid by the company and works with the child on a regular basis. The Corporate Big is responsible for helping the child with their school work and providing them with a positive role model. The Corporate Big is also responsible for helping the child with their homework and providing them with a positive role model. The Corporate Big is also responsible for helping the child with their homework and providing them with a positive role model.